

From the Principal

Dear Parents / Guardians, Friends, Staff and Students of OLSH College,

Welcome to the new year

Let me begin by welcoming everyone to Our Lady of the Sacred Heart College (aka OLSH or OLSH College) for a new school year. I especially extend a warm welcome to new families and staff who are joining us this year. It is certainly an exciting new beginning for our newest members, Year 7 students and also to the new students across other year levels. We are delighted to formally welcome them into the College as OLSH students (now affectionately known as OLSHies). I trust that they are already feeling at home and have enjoyed their first days at the College.

The start to the year commenced with the Year 7 and Year 12 girls being at school on Monday 29 January. This induction day is important as it sets the scene for the year.

Year 7 students have and will continue to spend a significant period of time over these first few days in 'O Week' (aka Orientation Week). The week is an extension of the transition program which commenced last year in Term 3 and aims to support your daughters transition to secondary school. The girls participate in a range of positive and engaging activities, events, and information sessions as part of their induction, familiarisation, and expectations of how we do things here at OLSH College. Always a favourite activity is the Amazing Race where students find clues located around the College to solve and more importantly, become familiar with the layout of the school, including classrooms, specialist learning areas, and the all-important canteen. This year the new Hartzer Building was added to the Amazing Race.

The Class of 2024, our Year 12 girls, were the first students to visit and tour the new Hartzer Building and Sacre Coeur Centre. Their visit was made more special with their participation in the ribbon cutting ceremony, needless to say, they were thrilled.

New year, new building!

As you can imagine excitement has filled the air as we reunited with colleagues, students, and the entire OLSH College Community over the course of the last two weeks. The new Hartzer Building and playing field are now complete and ready to be occupied and used by the OLSH College community.

It was only fitting, in the 150th year anniversary of the OLSH Sisters (our founders) and the 200 year anniversary of the birth of our patron, Fr Jules Chevalier, that the staff from our partner primary schools came together to celebrate Mass in our new Hartzer Building. Fr Selva (Kilburn/Clearview parish) and Deacon Andrew (Walkerville and Greenacres parish) presided over our Mass with staff from St Brigid's School (Kilburn), St Gabriel's School (Enfield), St Martin's Catholic Primary school (Greenacres) and OLSH College Staff along with our special guests including OLSH Sisters, Sr Pat Smith, Sr Jenny Seal and Mr Brady Stallard, CESA School Performance Leader in attendance.

This special Mass allowed us to come together as part of the Chevalier Family and the Community of the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, honouring these significant milestones in our history, our connection, and acknowledging 150 years of the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, and 200 year anniversary of Father Chevalier's birthday (15 March 2024). We recognise how blessed we are that our OLSH College Communities have flourished through the years. Mass was followed by a shared morning tea and tour of the Hartzer Building.

Theme for the year

Our College theme this year is, "We are Heart People who Touch the Hearts of Others". Each year a theme is selected which is taken from one of the OLSH Pillars of Education. The theme is a call and a challenge for each of us to connect and reconnect with each other. We look forward to further unpacking this theme throughout the year.

I hope that every OLSH girls feels "challenged and encouraged" in her classes and in her activities. All within our OLSH College Community appreciate the great privilege of inspiring, forming and guiding OLSH girls who are called to live out the OLSH Pillars of Education - Pursuing Excellence, Reverencing Relationships, Touching the Hearts of Others, and being Faith Filled.

Keeping in touch

The 2024 school year has begun, and you are warmly invited to take an active role in your daughters' education. In order to be able to support our girls fully, it is vital that the College has accurate contact details recorded for all parents. We ask you inform the Front Office olsh@olsh.catholic.edu.au in writing of any changes of address, telephone numbers, email addresses or personal details. It is most important the College has the latest up to date information in the case of an emergency. In addition, current email addresses are required for access to SEQTA ENGAGE, a learning management system for keeping families up to date with their daughter's progress. (Continued page 3)

The College's learning management system, SEQTA Engage is designed specially to manage and maintain student information i.e. timetabling, reports, personal information. SEQTA is an online Teaching & Learning Management system that helps to connect families with their daughter's learning.

On the SEQTA App you will be able to see your daughter's timetable, homework, lesson information, upcoming assessments and results. When students commence at the College, parents/guardians will be sent an email to set up their SEQTA account. Please refer to the SEQTA ENGAGE parent handbook for further instructions. Parents of students in Years 8 to 12 should already have their login details. All new families and parents will receive their link and password in due course. SEQTA Engage can be accessed via the SEQTA quick link on our website and on the College App.

Parents who have forgotten their SEQTA-Engage login details are asked to contact the College.

In addition, the SEQTA App is designed to allow parents/guardians, teachers and students to access important information about events and daily activities at the College. The SEQTA App is updated regularly to ensure that the College community is able to keep their fingers on the pulse of the school.

Year 12 SACE Results

As we have come to know and expect the Year 12 results for 2023 gave us much cause for pride in our students and staff. Once again, 100% of our students received their SACE (South Australian Certificate of Education). The Academic Assembly will be held in a few weeks and the College looks forward to inviting the Class of 2023 who achieved an ATAR above 90, received a merit and/or were recognised for another significant achievement from the SACE Board of SA. The College also acknowledges the achievements of the 2023 College Dux, International Dux and Proxime Accessit. The names of high achievers are provided further in this newsletter.

Every year and this year is no different while we offer congratulations to the Class of 2023, it is important that we acknowledge those students who have far exceeded their own personal expectations, which are not always reflected in an ATAR score. High praise and congratulations go to all OLSH staff (teaching and non-teaching) who have contributed to the students' success and who have played an important part in nurturing and supporting our students in their chosen pathway.

Maintenance and upgrades

Over the Christmas, New Year and Summer break, upkeep work took place including deep cleaning (windows, carpets, floors, gutter cleaning, etc), pressure cleaning of outdoor areas, gardening and landscaping, annual painting, installation of new stoves in the commercial kitchen and a multitude of maintenance requirements. In addition, the acquisition and set up of new student laptops (for Year 7 students) kept the Information and Communication Technology (ICT) team busy. They balanced this against the demands of ICT requirements in the new Hartzler Building.

These crucial and important works (seen and unseen) were capably led, coordinated, and overseen by our Business Manager, Mrs Fiona Miller in collaboration with our new Maintenance and Grounds Manager, Mr Jake Somerfield, we thank them immensely. Additional, gratitude is extended to Mr Matthew Dwiars from the ICT team and his numerous helpers, school cleaners, and various contractors. Their hard work and commitment in coordinating and keeping OLSH College always looking its best and ready for a promising start are greatly appreciated.

The first OLSH College Newsletter for 2024 is an opportune time to remind students and parents/guardians of the importance of good communication between the College and parents. We communicate with you regularly via the newsletter which is available fortnightly, usually on a Wednesday via SEQTA and also from our website: www.olsl.catholic.edu.au. I invite you to keep in touch with what's happening at the College via the OLSH College Facebook page @OLSHCollegeEnfield and Instagram account @OLSHCollegeAdelaide. Please ensure you keep the College updated of any changes to your home and/or mobile, email address, medical information for your daughter(s) and your contact details.

My best wishes to all members of our community for a joyful 2024 filled with success.

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be Everywhere Loved, Maria Urbano, Principal

PARENT INFORMATION EVENING WEDNESDAY 07 FEBRUARY: 6:30 - 8:00pm

The night is designed to provide you with information about supporting your daughter both at home and at school and how we can best work together.

Our school is very much a community and parents/guardians are encouraged to be involved in the life of OLSH College. We hope that this event will represent the beginning of a partnership which will support the development of your daughter.

We look forward to welcoming and working with you, so we harness a positive relationship for the benefit of your daughter. As always, the education and wellbeing of your daughter is our primary focus.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS ABOUT STUDENT ATTENDANCE

All students are required to be at school from 8:40am. School finishes at 3:25pm (except for Tuesdays when school concludes at 2:05pm).

Attendance at school is essential for students to not only pursue excellence with their studies but also reverence relationships and feel a part of the school community. We remind students that they are full time students so must make attendance a priority.

Where sickness or other significant matters lead to a student running late or prevents a student from attending, parents/guardians are asked to inform the school via telephone on 8269 8800 or email olsh@olsh.catholic.edu.au by 9:15am on the day. A note in the student's diary upon their return, which explains the absence is expected. A medical certificate is required for absences of more than two consecutive days due to illness.

If students are absent or late to school when the class rolls are taken and the College has not received a message from the parents/guardians, the College will automatically contact the parents/guardians via a SMS message to their mobile phone from 9:30am. The message will arrive on the phone of parent/guardian (number 1). The number you receive the SMS from will vary each day so please do not store any of these numbers in your phone.

Parents/guardians are requested to reply to the College as soon as possible using SMS reply or phoning the school office direct on 8269 8800. When replying via SMS, parents should always include their daughter's name and home class in the message and the reason for the absence.

Any unexplained absences will also appear in the dashboard on SEQTA ENGAGE and families should regularly check this to ensure information is up to date.

Families should advise the College of any changes to mobile phone numbers as soon as possible, to ensure our records are accurate and notifications of absence are being received. If parents/guardians do not have a mobile number, it is advisable to provide the number of an older sibling, grandparent or relative who may receive the SMS on your behalf (please return a signed written note via your daughter with the mobile number to use and the name and relationship of the person nominated).

Where possible, dental/medical appointments should be made after school or during the school holidays. It is important not to disrupt the learning process for students. If a student needs to leave the school grounds for an appointment, the school requires 24 hours' notice by either a note in your daughter's diary, written by a parent/guardian or email to the College. The student will have the note initialled by her lesson teacher at that leaving time and then report to the Front Office to sign out. The student is then able to leave for her appointment.

Where absences must occur due to family circumstances or special opportunities arise that would be beneficial to the student, parents are to write to the Principal advising of the matter with details and reasons. Parents should note that work deadlines, pre-organised subject tests and examination time frames will not be modified for such student absences other than in very exceptional circumstances and as negotiated with the Principal and the relevant teachers. We invite students (possibly parents) to contact class teachers to organise work for students who are ill or away for any length of time.

In instances when a senior student is absent from school for more than 2 weeks, this may seriously affect their learning program which may need to be adjusted significantly.

During the day students should not contact their parents directly via mobile phone without first notifying the Front Office.

Further information regarding student absences can be found in the School Life 2024 Handbook. Thank you for your support.

OUR LADY OF THE SACRED HEART

For those new families unfamiliar with the history of our school, Our Lady of the Sacred Heart (OLSH) College was established in 1951 in South Australia by the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, members of a religious congregation founded by Father Jules Chevalier in France in 1874. The congregation also established a number of primary schools in Adelaide including Immaculate Heart of Mary (Brompton), St Brigid's School (Kilburn), St Gabriel's School (Enfield) and St Martin's Catholic Primary School (Greenarces). There are only three OLSH secondary schools across Australia one in Victoria (Bentleigh) and one in NSW (Kensington) and the three secondary schools keep in close communication to keep the legacy of the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart and the charism of the Spirituality of the Heart alive.

I share with you information from the Proclamation for OLSH Schools.

Our Motto: May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be Everywhere Loved. All who belong to the family of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart are called to live out this motto. It is to live the very life of Jesus... to be on earth the Heart of Christ!

OLSH Mission Statement: To offer a Catholic Education for young women in the spirit of the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

OLSH School Vision Statement is a powerful and affirming statement of Our Work: A vibrant, inclusive and hopeful community in which each individual is valued as we engender a passion for learning, nurture faith and challenge injustice.
